

Help & User Guide

This guide walks you through the key steps to use the National Data Repository (NDR) portal - from registration to login, password reset, academic registration and contact details.

1 Registration

National Data Repository (NDR) is a government-sponsored E&P data bank for preservation, upkeep and dissemination of data for exploration and development.

- Users are requested to register themselves on the NDR portal to gain access to data.
- Registration is accepted only with official email IDs. Free or personal emails (Gmail, Yahoo, Outlook, etc.) are not accepted.
- Go to the NDR portal and click the Register button on the data tab.
- Fill in all mandatory fields (marked with *), including organisation details, contact details and other required information.
- Submit the registration form and wait for verification. Please allow 24 working hours for processing during office hours (Mon-Fri, 9:30 AM to 5:30 PM IST, excluding public holidays).
- After successful submission, a system-generated email will confirm that your registration request has been received.

2 Login

- Once your registration is validated, you will receive login credentials for the NDR portal.
- Open the NDR portal and go to the Login tab in the top menu.
- Enter your registered email ID and password to access the data and tools available on the portal.
- After login, follow the help guidelines available inside the portal to explore datasets and features.

3 Forgot / Reset Password

- If you forget your password, go to the Login tab and click Forgot / Reset Password.
- Enter your registered email address and the captcha code.
- Submit the form to send a reset password request. Follow the instructions received by email to set a new password.

4 Academic Registration Guidelines

Academic users must submit additional documents for their registration request to be processed.

- Send a scanned copy of your Student ID card.
- Send an authority letter on official letterhead from a competent authority (HOD, VC, etc.) with seal or stamp confirming legitimate use.
- Email these documents to indr@dghindia.gov.in using the official format specified in the guidelines.
- Registration processing for academic accounts starts only after receiving the above documents.

Important instructions

- Only colour scanned copies of original documents are accepted.
- Student ID card file size should be less than 100 KB.

- Authority letter file size should be less than 500 KB.
